

Women Not Human Beings: the Right of Being Human Monopolized by the Men

Women Possess Only Sex and Are Silenced by Claim of Other Half of Society, Says Mrs. Rheta
Childe Dorr, Author.

They Are Expected to Conform to a Type and Must Be Beautiful, She Asserts—Woman's Hope
Lies in America.

By Marguerite Moores Marshall.

"A woman is not a human being. The right of being human is entirely monopolized by men. Women possess only sex."

It is with these trenchant phrases that Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr, author of "What 8,000,000 Women Want," summarizes the present position of woman-kind in an article in the current number of Hampton's Magazine. Casting her plummet deep beneath the surface of suffrage, Mrs. Dorr apparently has really touched bottom in that troubled sea of restlessness, the mind of the modern woman.

"One half the population, the men," explains Mrs. Dorr, "has maintained the position: 'The human race—that's us.' Of course they are not the human race. But they have always said they were, and the colossal audacity of the claim simply silences the other half. No one woman has ever been in a position successfully to dispute the claim of the male half of society. So woman generally has meekly taken her place as a member of the Ladies' Aid Society to the Human Race, and there she has remained."

"The difference between belonging to the human race and being a member of the Ladies' Aid is merely the difference between walking in ordinary shoes and tottering painfully in Chinese boots. The natural foot is large or small, wide or narrow, as the case may be. The artificial foot lacks variation. It has a conventional size and shape. Otherwise it is owned by a scandal and a disgrace to the family."

WOMEN ARE EXPECTED TO CONFORM TO A TYPE.

"Men, being human, are expected to differ from one another," the writer adds in application of her metaphor. "Women, being a sex, are expected to conform to a type, and they are admired and respected in proportion to their ability to conform. The type, of course, is that which arouses the amorous emotions of men."

And then Mrs. Dorr asks and answers a significant question: "What must women be in order to approximate the feminine type?"

"First of all, they must be young. A woman must not be over thirty years of age. If she is, she becomes ridiculous, a subject for jest and merriment. Even in the States where women vote and hold office, they are still under the obligation to remain young. They are never asked to record their age on the registration books, as men are. The oldest grandmother in Colorado is registered in the poll books as twenty-one years old."

"Besides being young, women must be beautiful. So universal is the demand for the decorative quality in women that chivalry assumes that all women possess it. In the newspapers women are invariably described as beautiful or at least pretty."

"To fulfill the conventional ideal of beauty is simple, whether it is easy or not. Just as nearly as nature, in collaboration with art, can manage it, the type approximates to the soft, smooth, unemotional, unintelligent, pink and white wax doll, used to display millinery and frocks in shop windows."

"Beauty changes its details from season to season. One year Beauty has curves, another year angles. Beauty's waist line was formed on the hour-glass model a few years ago. Just now her waist line melts into the general scheme of stovetop construction from shoulders to heels."

"But whatever Beauty wears," the cynic adds scornfully, "women must copy it. The thing is painful for many women, and it is expensive for most, but the duty remains. Plainness, especially the plainness of advancing years, is absolutely interdicted."

WOMAN'S FIRST WRINKLE IS A LIFE TRAGEDY.

"A woman's lines are just wrinkles and the first one is a life tragedy. When the powder and the rouge and the dotted veil are at last powerless

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS DUE TO BRITISH STRIKE.

When Labor Troubles Are Settled
Attacks by Hoodlums Are Expected to Cease.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—In the opinion of Jewish residents here, the riots at Tredgar and other Welsh mining towns were indirectly if not directly due to the strike ferment and that once the labor troubles have vanished the present anti-Jewish feeling will disappear. Those who hold this opinion are none the less anxious, because there are 100,000 Jews resident in London and many thousands in various parts of the Kingdom, and the Jews heretofore have regarded themselves as safe from persecution in Great Britain.

NEWPORT, Monmouthshire, England, Aug. 23.—The anti-Jewish rioting at Tredgar and adjacent towns was almost entirely the work of hoodlums who have obtained a stronghold in those places because the forces of police stationed there are small. The Jews who suffered attacks were among the most respected of the townspeople and they indignantly deny the charges of demanding high rents, and so far as can be ascertained the complaints against them of exacting exorbitant prices are unfounded.

Ballasted With Sand to Brown.
ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 23.—Fully clothed and with sand in the hem of her dress, the body of Mary Conway was found in the surf to-day by life-guarders. It is believed that the woman, possibly deranged, had been walking into the ocean. She was employed at one of the hotels.

CURED SORES WHEN ALL ELSE FAILED

Woman Acts as Benefactress to Children

Mrs. W. Linsky of Salem, Mass., writes, telling of the wonderful results from the use of Resinol. In her own words the letter reads:

"I have used your Resinol Ointment for five years, as two different doctors recommended it. I have given it to a number of children with sores that they could not find a cure for, and it was always sure to cure them. I would not be without it."

Resinol is the indispensable standard remedy for all skin troubles, from the common pimple, cut, scald, boil or sore, to carbuncles, felon, eczema, tetter, shingles, barber's itch, psoriasis and every abrasion of the skin from any cause. Resinol Ointment can be instantly applied and its effect is instantaneous. It is put up in screw-top ointment containers, selling at fifty cents or a dollar, according to size. It has the approval and recommendation of thousands of our best physicians, and hundreds of thousands of families are never without it. Another indispensable necessity is Resinol Soap, one of the finest, most soothing and refreshing toilet soaps in the world. It is a preventive of most of the skin troubles, including blackheads, pimples and chapped hands. It is especially adapted to the tender skin of infants and children. Nothing is better for shampooing and cleaning the scalp and for the prevention of falling hair. The ointment and soap are sold by all druggists. Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

And woman's hope lies in America, the writer thinks, because of the ability of the part of American men to see plain facts.

Soon the masculine half of our population will see for itself that women are not only a right to belong to the human race, but that they do belong, and that no laws, no policies of exclusion, no selfish discriminations can alter the fact.

Then, is the conclusion, "Well life becomes a simpler, saner process. Then will the tons of energy now devoted by women to necessary action be turned into useful, productive work. Then will marriage become a companionship in the truest sense of the word."

GERMAN CRUISER TO SHOOT TARGETS IN BUZZARD'S BAY.

Yankee Speculation on Right of Foreign Warships to Practise in American Waters.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 23.—The German cruiser Bremen arrived in Buzzards Bay to-day and it was announced will conduct torpedo practice in the bay. A tax has been engaged here to assist in the maneuver. Considerable local speculation has been caused as to the right of a foreign warship thus to indulge in military operations in United States waters.

Consumption Often Develops From Pneumonia

Consumption readily affects those who have had pneumonia. The lungs thus weakened are more easily attacked by consumption germs. Eckman's Alternative is then the appropriate remedy.

"4240 Powhatan Av., Phila., Pa. 'Gentlemen: Since taking Eckman's Alternative I have gained twenty-eight pounds and I am very thankful for the great change of health it has brought.'"

(Signed) THOMAS RILEY. Fuller details of above case on request. Eckman's Alternative is for Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. For sale by all Druggists and Biker drug stores and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.
